

PENN DEFEATS SWARTHMORE

Homer by McGraw Breaks Up Game
in Seventh—Score Is 13-4.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Overcoming an early lead, Pennsylvania came from behind and defeated Swarthmore on Franklin Field today by 13 to 4. The outstanding star in the Penn attack was McGraw, who, playing his first full varsity game, made three hits off Earnshaw, one being a home run in the seventh, with Goldblatt on second base, when the Garnet had a one-run lead. McGraw's hit broke the morale of the visiting team, and before the round was over four more runs had been scored.

Captain Billy Maher also jumped out into the spotlight by stealing home twice.

The score:

PENN.						SWARTHMORE.
	Ab	R	H	Po	A		Ab	R	H	Po	A
Goldblatt, 2b	3	3	2	2	1	Esrey, 3b	5	0	0	0	3
McGraw, rf	5	2	3	1	0	Hayes, cf	5	1	2	2	0
Sullivan, 3b	5	1	1	0	2	Wood, lf	4	2	2	5	0
Whitehill, 1b	5	2	2	13	1	Ogden, 1b	5	1	1	7	1
Maher, c	5	2	3	7	0	Earnshaw, p	3	0	2	1	1
Mahaffey, cf	4	2	1	4	0	Wonzel, c	3	0	0	5	0
Simpson, lf	5	1	1	0	0	Berworth, ss	4	0	0	2	0
Liebgott, ss	3	0	0	0	3	Dudley, 2b	4	0	0	1	2
Huntz'ger, p	4	0	0	0	5	Cisney, rf	3	0	0	0	0
Total ...	39	13	13	27	12	Total	36	4	7	23	7

*Liebgott out, hit by batted ball.

Errors—Earnshaw, Wonzel (2), Berworth, Dudley (2), Goldblatt (2), Maher.

Penn. 2 0 0 1 0 0 6 4 ..—13
Swarthmore 3 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—4

Left on bases—Swarthmore 9, Penn. 6.
Two-base hits—Wood, Earnshaw, Maher (2).
Home runs—McGraw, Whitehill. Sacrifice hit—Wood. Stolen bases—McGraw, Liebgott, Mahaffey, Goldblatt, Simpson, Maher. Bases on balls—Off Earnshaw 3, Huntzinger 3. Struck out—By Earnshaw 5, Huntzinger 7. Hit by pitcher—By Huntzinger (Earnshaw). Wild pitch—Earnshaw. Umpires—Wasner and Adams. Time of game—1:59..

The New York Times

Published: May 3, 1922

Copyright © The New York Times