

PENN DEFEATS YALE IN SOCCER GAME, 5-1

Other Quaker Team Also Victor,
Winning From Lehigh, 4-1,
in State Title Contest.

TIGERS DOWN HARVARD, 3-0

Navy Triumphs Over Dartmouth, 5 to 1—Penn State and Wesleyan
Are Returned Winners.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—The undefeated University of Pennsylvania team today defeated Yale 5 to 1 in an intercollegiate title soccer game. The Quakers led throughout, forcing the play at all times.

Goals were made by Singleback, who led the scoring for both teams with two tallies; Stewart, Boss and Sensening. Lambert registered the only goal for Yale.

Captain Gilman and Terry starred for the losers. It was Yale's first defeat of the season.

The line-up:

PENN (5).		YALE (1).
RichmondG.....	Terry
PancostR.B.....	Zantylnger
BaileyL.B.....	Henderson
SchulerR.H.B.....	Hand
DownsC.H.B.....	Milliken
BrandschainL.H.B.....	Gibbs
StewartO.R.F.....	Gilman
BossI.R.F.....	Wyzg
SinglebackC.F.....	Wallace
GottleL.L.F.....	Bingham
SensingO.L.F.....	Lamberti

Goals—Lamberti, Singleback, Boss, Stewart, Sensening.

Substitutions—Yale: Creevey for Gibbs, Bullock for Wallace. Penn: MacDonald for Bailey.

Referee—John Cave—Linesmen—James Miller and Redden. Time of periods—Forty-five minutes.

The New York Times

Published: November 9, 1924

Copyright © The New York Times