

PAPPANO IS THROWN, BUT PENN TOPS ARMY

Suffers First Collegiate Defeat at Hands of Packard as Team
Wins, 16½-10½.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—Pennsylvania scored its second straight varsity wrestling victory of the season today, beating the U. S. Military Academy team at the Palestra, 16½ to 10½.

The Red and Blue won the meet when Captain Phil Gabriel defeated Warren C. McDermid in the 175-pound class with a time advantage. One of the upsets was the first collegiate defeat of Achilles Pappano, Penn's 145-pounder. He was thrown by Harry B. Packard.

The Army heavyweight, Louis A. Hammack, member of the U. S. Olympic team, gained a time advantage over Gabriel Frei, formerly of Richmond Hill High, New York.

The summaries:

115-Pound Class—Davis Conner, Penn, threw Harry Montgomery, Army, with double bar hold in 6 minutes 15 seconds.
