

PRINCETON CONQUERS PENN AT WRESTLING

Triumphs, 17½' to 10½', in Match at Philadelphia—Gregory and Tiede Are Winners.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—Princeton's varsity wrestlers subdued Pennsylvania at the Palestra today. 17½ to 10½, winning four bouts and drawing in another.

After Stanley Levine and Captain Charles Moore had sent the Red and Blue ahead with decisions in the first two encounters, Henry Perry of the Tigers threw Samuel Gordon in the lightweight division and Jim Quinn won the 145-pound bout for the visitors.

Julian Gregory, Princeton's 1933 intercollegiate 155-pound champion, also gained a fall over Frank Kanter. George Tiede, the Tigers' 155-pound 1934 titleholder, proved too skillful for Maurice Levin in the 165-pound bout, but it went the limit.

John Graham of Penn won from William Rawls in the 175-pound class, then the heavyweights, Bernard Pollock of Penn and Carl Schmidlapp grappled two extra periods to a draw.

THE SUMMARIES.

- 118-Pound Class—Stanley Levine, Penn, defeated George McKee. Time advantage—8:31.
- 126-Pound Class—Charles Moore, Penn, defeated Dorsey P. Alexander. Time advantage—9:28.
- 135-Pound Class—Henry Perry, Princeton, threw Samuel Gordon with a bar and chancery hold in 6:09.
- 145-Pound Class—Jim Quinn, Princeton, defeated Donald Taylor. Time advantage—4:25.
- 155-Pound Class—Julian Gregory, Princeton, threw Frank Kanter with bar and chancery hold in 5:31.
- 165-Pound Class—George Tiede, Princeton, defeated Maurice Levin. Time advantage—9:46.
- 175-Pound Class—John Graham, Penn, defeated William Rawls. Time advantage—3:54.
- Heavyweight Class—Bernard Pollock, Penn, and Carl Schmidlapp drew (two extra periods).

The New York Times

Published: February 10, 1935

Copyright © The New York Times