
TITLE TO PENN, CORNELL

Soccer Teams Tie for Honors and Decide Against Play-Off.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4 (AP).—E. Paul Patton, secretary-treasurer of the Middle Atlantic States Intercollegiate Soccer League, announced today Pennsylvania and Cornell will share the 1935 championship of the league.

Each team finished the season with four victories and one defeat.

Patton said that both colleges decided against a play-off series.

The New York Times

Published: December 5, 1935

Copyright © The New York Times