

Fordham Downs Princeton, 18-1, Hearn Leading in 19-Hit Attack

Ram Centerfielder Drives Two Singles, a Triple and Walks Twice—Rutgers Tops Lehigh, 8-4—Penn State, Navy Win

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 13.—Behind the slugging of Mike Hearn, Ram center-fielder and lead-off man, the Fordham baseball team scored in all but two innings to submerge the Princeton nine, 18-1, on University Field today. It was the second straight for the visitors and the third consecutive loss for the Tigers.

Hearn touched off a first-period three-run splurge for the New Yorkers when he drew a pass, advanced on Dick Purnell's error and came home on an infield out. He repeated with another walk for the Maroon's second-period tally and later drove in three runs and scored twice on two singles and a triple.

Three more triples and Fred Marcella's double were included in Fordham's nineteen hits. The Rams shelled two Tiger pitchers from the mound. Pete Murphy retired with two hits against him at the end of the second, and Fred Rowe was pounded for thirteen safeties in carrying through to the eighth, when Bill Fallon moved over from first to the mound.

Fallon retired the side and clouted a homer to center in the second half of the inning for the Tigers' only run and their first circuit blow of the season.

The Rams' heaviest hitting came in the eighth. Bill Aiken walked and was driven in along with four others on a series of triples by Hearn, Pat Petrino and Dom Principe and a single by Marcella. Four Rams shared the pitching assignment, yielding only six hits in all.

Penn State 6, Penn 4

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—Penn State opened its baseball season by defeating Pennsylvania on Franklin Field today, 6 to 4. The Nittany Lions drove Payson Brickley from the box in the fourth when they tied the score with three runs and then took advantage of George Ruzsak's wildness to win in the seventh.

Captain Sam Simoncelli and Tom Watts held the Red and Blue to eight hits. State played errorless ball, the fielding of Sol Miehoff featuring.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 13.—Overcoming a one-run deficit in the seventh inning, Rutgers triumphed in the opener of a two-game series with Lehigh today, 8 to 4. The Engineers' loose playing in the late innings helped pave the way for some of the runs.

The visitors collected fourteen hits, twice as many as Lehigh, but Shaw's two-bagger was the only extra base hit for Rutgers. Nicholas led Lehigh with a home run and a double, while Lucard connected for a triple.
