PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27 (AP)—Pennsylvania, sparked by Sophomore Ernie Beck's 36 points, turned back Dartmouth, 81-67, tonight on the Palestra basketball court before 2,980 fans.

In leading Penn to its fourth Eastern Intercollegiate League victory against one defeat, Beck tallied the most points ever scored by a Penn player.

The Quakers led throughout the contest, holding spreads of 25-11 at the ten-minute mark, 42-30 at the intermission, and 59-50 midway in the second half.

Penn hit on 34 of 79 shots from the floor with Beck the individual standout, connecting on 16 of 24.

Beck's 16 field goals snapped the floor standard of 15, set by former Villanova star Paul Arizin.

Paced by Larry Hennessey's 37 points, once-beaten Villanova beat Boston College, 98-67, in the second game. Villanova's winning total wiped out the one-team record of 96 points set by Penn against Yale on Jan. 6.

Indiana Takes Sixth in Row
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Jan. 27 (AP)—Indiana's Big Ten Conference basketball leaders went along tonight with a Minnesota team that wanted a deliberate game and won by the surprisingly low score of 32-26.

It was the sixth straight league victory for Indiana, ranked No. 5 nationally in The Associated Press weekly poll.

Both teams were virtually motionless for a six-minute period in the second half. Indiana had the ball and a 10-point lead and waited for Minnesota to come after it. Minnesota wouldn't.

A crowd of more than 10,000, perfectly willing for Indiana to stall with its healthy lead, counted off the passing seconds in unison.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 27 (AP)—Defending champion Ohio State won its first Western Conference basketball game in six starts by downing Michigan State, 58-49, before 3,744 fans in the Fairgrounds Coliseum. Michigan State now has a 2-4 Big Ten record.

Northwestern Beats Purdue
EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 27 (UP)—Northwestern set a new scoring record tonight in defeating Purdue, 97 to 79, before 3,500 fans in a Western Conference basketball game.

A tip-in by Ray Ragelis with seven minutes left to play broke Northwestern's single-game scoring record of 81 points.
