

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania quintete, led by Ernie Beck's 22 points, raced to its third Ivy League victory in four starts tonight, defeating Dartmouth, 79—50, at the Palestra.

Villanova edged Iona, 70—67, in the second game of the double-header.

The sharp-shooting Quakers hit on their first five shots to take a 10-2 lead in the first three minutes of play. Sophomore Forward Bart Leach paced the early Penn assault with a trio of field goals.

The Hanover Indians held Beck, who entered the game with a 28.2 scoring average, to 6 points in the first half. Penn's high-scoring All-America candidate connected with but three of nine shots in the first twenty minutes. Beck dominated both backboards, however, as he took fourteen rebounds to thirteen for the entire Dartmouth team.

Fred Gieg was the only Indian able to tally consistently in the first half. He netted four field goals and four fouls for nearly half of Dartmouth's first-half points. Gieg was high scorer for the visitors with 14.
