

NAVY TURNS BACK

PENN FIVE, 66-53

Johnson's 20 Points Help
Middies Win—Rubincam
Excels for Quakers

Special to The New York Times.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 6—Capt. Dick Johnson, a senior from Austin, Tex., scored 20 points to lead Navy to a 66-53 victory over Pennsylvania in the midshipmen's basketball
opener today.

Paul Rubincam topped the Quakers with 19 points. Penn, which has a 1-1 record now,
opened its season with a 63-55
victory over Rutgers.

The game was close for the first ten minutes. Then Navy got 9 points in a row midway
in the first half to turn a 16-13 deficit into a 22-16 lead. Dick Brown, a 6-foot 3-inch sophomore from Silver Springs, Md., made 6 points in the spurt.

Navy, opening its thirteenth
season under Coach Ben Carnevale, a former New York University star, held a 32-23 lead at the half. Sparked by the shooting of Rubincam, Penn cut its deficit to 38—33 early in the second half, but never seriously threatened again as Navy scored 14 of the next 19 points.

Bob Mlkvy, Penn's highly rated, 6-foot 4-inch sophomore star, failed to see action. The brother of the former Temple all-America, Bill Mlkvy, was sidelined by a leg injury.

Despite the 13-point loss, Penn nearly outshot the middies from the field. The Quakers made twenty-one of fifty-two shots for 40 per cent, compared to twenty-two of sixty-three and 36 per cent for Navy. However, the middies were hot at the foul line, making twenty-two of twenty-eight attempts.

Rubincam was the only Quaker who did well against the middies' zone defense. He scored consistently with set shots from the side and also registered with driving one-hand shots.

Allen Schwait, a forward, got 8 points for Penn.
