

Penn Romps, 94-54

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1 (AP)
— Phil Hankinson scored 24 points as ninth-ranked Penn opened its season with a 94-54 romp over King's College of Pennsylvania tonight. The Quakers broke away to leads of 13-4 and 23-7 and Hankinson scored 10 straight points at one stretch. King's managed only two field goals in the first 13 minutes.

In the second game at the Palestra, Jim Crawford's 25 points and a defense that held Army scoreless during a seven-minute span of the second half helped La Salle score a 73-63 victory. During Army's cold spell, LaSalle scored 14 straight points, 8 by Crawford.
