Penn State Rally Tops Fordham Five, 73 to 67

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26 (AP)—Ron Brown scored 4 of his 13 points in overtime as Penn State rallied for a 73-67 victory over Fordham tonight in the opener of the 13th annual Quaker City basketball tournament.

Carl Meier's free throw with two seconds to play gave California a 64-63 upset victory over Pennsylvania in the second game.

Penn State, with a 5-4 won-lost record, jumped to an 11-point lead with 1 minute 8 seconds left in the half. But Stan Frankoski, a Fordham freshman, and Darryl Brown combined for 6 points to close within 36-29 at half-time.

The Rams, now 4-4, outscored the Nittany Lions 16-2 at the outset of the second half on the shooting of Frankoski, who tallied 6 points, and took a 50-41 lead with 12:50 remaining.

Frankoski topped all scorers with 23 points. Jim Ouderkirk and Randy Meister, a 6-foot-9-inch junior, led Penn State with 18 points apiece.

Duke Rallies to Win

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 26 (AP)—Kevin Billerman hit a jump shot with two minutes to play and Duke returned from a 14-point deficit tonight to post a 75-69 victory over Western Kentucky in the opening game of the Gator Bowl basketball tournament.

Chris Redding led the winners with 23 points and Johnny Britt was high for the Hilltoppers with 18.

Colorado, Missouri Gain

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 26 (UPI)—Pat Kelly sank three free throws in the final 1 minute 46 seconds tonight and Scott Wedman scored 30 points in leading Colorado to a 73-71 victory over Kansas and allowing the Buffaloes to join Missouri in the semi-finals of the Big Eight basketball tournament.

Steve Dengos and Al Eberhard combined for 45 points to lead Missouri to a 73-70 upset victory over 14th-ranked Oklahoma in the other first-round game.

Rutgers Wins, 73-67

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 26 (AP)—Ron Sellers hit two free throws tonight to give Rutgers a 6-point lead, and the Scarlet Knights used the stall to perfection to gain a 73-67 victory over Oklahoma City University in the 38th All-College basketball tournament.

Bob Trowbridge paced Southern California to a 98-76 victory over Southwestern University of Georgetown, Tex., in the opening game of the tournament.
