

Princeton Subdues Brown Five, 56-47

Special to The New York Times

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 13 — Princeton, the Ivy League's leader, posted a 56-47 victory over Brown tonight. The Tigers broke open a tight game with spurts of 11-4 and 10-4 in the second half and won going away.

Armond Hill led the winners with 18 points as Princeton raised its league won-lost record to 7-0 and overall mark to 15-4.

Princeton had a 22-14 lead with 8 minutes 3 seconds left in the first half, but the Bruins scored the next 6 points and pulled within 2 at 22-20. Princeton scored on a jump shot by Mickey Steuerer, and Brown got a foul shot that accounted for a 24-21 halftime score, Princeton ahead.

The Bruins scored the first two baskets of the second half and took their last lead of the night at 25-24 with 18:58 to go. The Tigers then scored the next 6 points, took a 30-25 lead and used an aggressive defense that held Brown to four field goals in the next 15 minutes. Princeton had a comfortable 52-39 lead before the Bruins made a late surge that closed the final score.
